THE CITY.

VANDALIA.—A leading physician informs our reporter that small pox in a mild form is still prevalent in various parts of the city. We mention it that vaccination may be attended to in time.

WISCONSIN.—A new storm set in upon us yesterday evening, very vigorous while it lasted, but short to its duration. So far we have had remarkably pleasant weather for the autumn, looking out for what is coming.

MAGAZINES.—Now is the time to subscribe, as McWayne & Co., 81 Dearborn street, are taking subscriptions at the old rates, or less per year, for 1863. Goodyear's, Quisenberry and Knobbecker's, will withdraw the list in publication price.

DRAMA.—Edgar Jervis, who has become familiar to our citizens, as a figure in the vicinity of the Post Office, and who will be recognized by "I am blind," on his cap from head last night of pneumonia. He was formerly a property in Boston.

CONCERTS.—A musical association, the soloists, etc., already noted in the Tribune, are giving an exhibition and were held to be in the sum of $2,000 each. The officers found $600 in Treasury notes and gold, which were in their possession.

BOARD OF TRADE BATTERY.—Persons having friends in the Board of Trade Battery or the 88th regiment, can get letters or small packages sent to them by the post office, at their address, No. 514 South Water street, up to Saturday night.

RAILROADS.—Prof. A. Griffith, the gifted American electrician, will soon give a series of readings in this city. He has lectured before many of our best literary institutions in the North and South, and brings the highest testimonials from those who heard him. We hope the citizens will extend a paying welcome to Prof. Griffith.

TO WATER TANKERS.—The time for the payment of water taxes is to the first of December, without the additional penalty; all water bills being paid under date of November 1st, will be subject to a fine of $100, and the same by December 1st, to $200.

RAISING.—Prof. A. Griffith, the gifted American electrician, will soon give a series of readings in this city. He has lectured before many of our best literary institutions in the North and South, and brings the highest testimonials from those who heard him. We hope the citizens will extend a paying welcome to Prof. Griffith.

INCIDENTS AT THE FIRE.

The slight breeze here the sparks northward from the burning building, and in the vicinity of the fire fell upon the roof of a house, where a tattered paper, from the composition roofing, floated away upon the breeze for a square or more, and several persons had their hats and cloaks taken off by the falling sparks.

JOHN J. WEAVER.—A lawyer, who was in the crowd at the corner of Lake and Franklin streets, a block distant, was so severely burned in his face by a ball of burning tar striking him, that he had to be carried to his home.

FOUR MEN STANDING ON SOUTH WATER STREET.—Four men standing on South Water street, in front of Breese's building, were so severely burned by the falling wall, but not seriously injured.

THE WALL.—The walls of the western building (345) were for the most part leveled to the first story. The east walls of No. 345 is standing, but is much injured as to its uselessness.

THE ADJOINING BUILDING.—The adjoining building, No. 347, on Franklin and South Water, were damaged to such extent by fire, it is said, that it will probably be destroyed.

JUDGE MANNERS' DISCUSSION.

The decision of the Court was full and complete, covering the law in reference to embezzlement, and also, as to the question of jurisdiction, which was a question of great interest to the public.

THE WITNESS.—The witness, who was called to the stand on Friday, was the under six years of age, and has never received a coat of any kind. Counsel also contended that he was not compelled to give evidence.
